

Synergistic Divergence

- Paradoxical abduction during attempted horizontal gaze to the contralateral side
- Report of 5 cases
 - Description of congenital syndrome of monocular adduction deficit
 - simultaneous abduction of both eyes on attempted gaze into the field of action of the paretic medial rectus muscle.
 - Electromyographic data suggests neural miswiring disorder related to Duane's retraction syndrome.
 - These patients did not have mutations in the common congenital fibrosis genes

strabismus

From:

<https://childreneye.org/wiki/> - Children's Eye Wiki

Permanent link:

https://childreneye.org/wiki/doku.php?id=synergistic_divergence

Last update: 2017/12/13 09:24

